Story of two boys. It all about Choices

The main purpose of this Golf Tournament is to supports the Fall Boys Retreat. Many of these boys come inner-city and are come to camp by involvement in the Positive Black Males of Houston.

This weekend allows a boy to be a boy: To feel safe, to feel care for, to fish, to canoe, to play games, to learn about nature, and to get three meals a day. They interact with men with good Christian values. They get out of the neighborhood and see a world that their leaders talk about. The boys experience the opportunity to live and have a dream. The leaders say the way out is to get involved, stay clean, and get an education.

Both of these young men lived in Houston's third ward. Both were influenced by the PBMA. Both attended the Fall Boys Retreat.

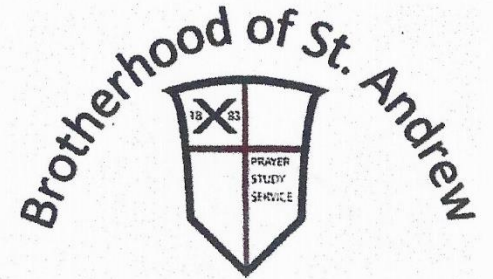

One boy made a bad choice. He represents the minority of those who attend the Fall Boys Retreat. Rather than get involved in education and a future, he listened to the gangs and decided he could do it on his own. He chose to not be involved with PBMA but with the gangs. And now he's 16 years old and facing life in prison. And when he was in trouble, where did he turn to for help? The very people he rejected, PBMA.

The second boy made a different choice. He represents the majority of those who attend the Fall Boys Retreat. He got involved PBMA, and his church. He stayed clean, got an education, and now he is a Harvard graduate. This young man made a good choice, and he's encouraging others back in his old neighborhood to make good choices.

Your sponsorship can help other boys make a good choice. Help sponsor the Fall Boys Retreat by supporting the Golf Tournament.
